

Biography: Professor Lawrence Loh

Prof Lawrence Loh is Director, Centre for Governance and Sustainability (CGS) at NUS Business School, National University of Singapore where he is Professor in Practice of Strategy and Policy.

Prof Loh received a PhD in Management from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). His thesis on technology governance was awarded global first prize in the worldwide doctoral competition in the field of management information systems. At MIT, he also completed the doctoral qualifying examinations in finance and pursued related courses such as corporate finance, financial economics, econometrics, micro- and macro-economics.

At CGS, Prof Loh leads key sustainability initiatives for Asia-Pacific, ASEAN and Singapore. He steers the Singapore Governance and Transparency Index and ASEAN Corporate Governance Scorecard. Prof Loh also heads studies on business integrity and leadership diversity.

In the specific domain of Environment, Social and Governance (ESG) relevant for sustainable investments, Prof Loh has extensive professional engagements in the global and regional arenas. He was a lead investigator on a study in sustainable banking for all listed banks in ASEAN in collaboration with WWF. Prof Loh directed the initiative that is commissioned by the Singapore Exchange to conduct sustainability assessments of all listed companies on the Exchange. He also headed the ASEAN sustainability reporting initiative covering 6 countries and steered the Asia-Pacific sustainability reporting assessment covering 13 jurisdictions. Prof Loh currently spearheads a study on climate reporting in ASEAN companies with GRI.

Prof Loh has delivered numerous executive development programs in sustainability and ESG for many leading clients and institutions across Asia, ASEAN and Singapore, including financial institutions and financial training entities. Prof Loh is also a regular speaker at professional events in sustainable finance, including ESG, green and impact investments.

Prof Loh was lead consultant for information technology manpower as well as research and development manpower studies commissioned by the Singapore government. He was chief facilitator for Singapore's National Technology Plan and served on the Think Tank for Science and Technology. Prof Loh also consulted for Fortune 500 companies and international organizations in technology and innovation policy.

Prof Loh is a regular commentator on business and policy issues for leading global media such as AFP, BBC, Bloomberg, China Central Television, China Daily, China Global Television Network, CNBC, CNN, Deal Street Asia, Eco-Business, Financial Times, Forbes, NetEase, Nikkei Asia, People's Daily, South China Morning Post, Tech in Asia, The Washington Post, Xinhua, Yahoo Finance as well as Singapore media such as Berita Harian, CNA, Lianhe Zaobao, Singapore Business Review, The Business Times, The Edge Singapore, The New Paper, The Straits Times and TODAY.
